RECOMMENDATION OF UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Came on for consideration the report of the United States Magistrate Judge in this action, this matter having been heretofore referred to the Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636. The Magistrate Judge entered proposed findings of fact and recommendations (Dkt. #55) that Defendant be committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of twenty-one (21) months, to run consecutive to any other term of imprisonment; followed by fifteen (15) months of supervised release under all of the prior conditions of supervised release imposed in the original judgment, Dkt. 36, excluding the special condition that Defendant must acquire a high school equivalency certificate; and that Defendant be placed at FCI Three Rivers in Three Rivers, Texas, if appropriate.
